Knights at the Otters

A great time was had by all as we gathered and braved the heat on the hottest day of the year to watch the Otters. There was food, fellowship, drinks, peanuts, hats, and the game, all for freeeeeeeeee, thanks to the Knights. Owner and fellow brother Knight Bill Bussing, appreciated the support. It was good to hang out with the other councils in the area.

Next Men's Cursillo Sept 7-10

The next men's Cursillo will have several of our brother Knights on hand. Shawn Collins and Bill Hewitt will be making the weekend as candidates and Michael Mosbey will be on the Team. There are many great ways to help out on this weekend, please see Sam if you'd like to jump in. Women's Cursillo will be on October 26-29, with Fr. Zach and Deacon Rocky on their team. Go 4th !!!!!

COLUMBIA: You became a member of the Knights of Columbus last year as well. How did that come about, and what has been your experience as a Knight?

JONATHAN ROUMIE: I met Supreme Knight Patrick Kelly and his wife in Rome when I was invited to a screening of the documentary on Mother Teresa. And they presented me with an honorary lifetime membership, which was unexpected but just thrilling to me and a great honor.

Nowadays, though, as with other church-related experiences, it's not the way it used to be for me. For instance, I used to be a eucharistic minister and a lector, and I volunteered as a sponsor in RCIA and a number of other ministries. But I can't participate in those things in the same way anymore because it becomes something different, drawing attention to me in a way that I don't want it to. It's the same thing as a Knight: I would like to participate in a traditional sense, but I haven't found how to do that just yet. But I think there are other ways and possibilities, and maybe over a cup of coffee with the supreme knight we can come up with some solutions.

Supreme Knight Kelly presents Jonathan Roumie with a lifetime K of C membership card during a meeting at the Pontifical North American College in Rome on Aug. 29, 2022.

COLUMBIA: Is there a message you would like to leave your brother Knights?

JONATHAN ROUMIE: Just know that I'm praying for you and the people you serve. I'm also praying that the noise of culture not get in the way of your mission, because I think it's easy for a lot of people to get distracted right now. The enemy loves to distract us from our work, especially when we're serving the Lord, so we have to be careful not to get sucked into conversations that don't matter.

I feel compelled to share that, I don't know why. Maybe because I have to do that a lot in my own line of work. Oftentimes there are just so many distracting conversations that have nothing to do with my mission. So, I have to get really good at tuning that stuff out. And to just keep Jesus at the center and his mama right beside him — serving the Lord with all my soul, all my heart and all my strength. Amen. +

"I get sick and tired of people who leave the Catholic Church and say, 'I wasn't being fed'. That's because you were looking for junk food! You won't find that in the Holy Sacrifice of the Mass."

2023 MEN'S CONFERENCE

"Iron sharpens iron so one man strengthens another" - Proverbs 27:17

SATURDAY, SEPTEMBER 16

8:30 AM—1:30 PM @ St. John the Baptist Catholic Church

625 Frame Road, Newburgh, IN 47630 * (812) 490-1000

Come for a day of faith, fellowship and learning. See how we as men can help one another to develop the motivation and accountability we need to become men of God. We as men are faced with daily distractions that pull us away from our core, our soul, our faith. Learn how to reconnect to your faith so that you can be the spiritual leader you are called to be.

Includes Mass and talks by:
Father Tyler Tenbarge, "Aimless men"

The world wants to keep you distracted. It wants your attention to follow its agenda. But men were not meant to be aimless. Come spend time thinking about God's vision for your life, about the Devil's attempts to distract you, and discover the Church's wisdom on how to regain your aim as a man.

Father Luke Hassler, "Obstacles to grace: from fear to freedom"

In our society we are constantly bombarded by a message of fear, always looking for the next thing to worry about. It's time to move from the fear of the world to the freedom that God wants to give us.

$15 per person registration (or $20 at the door). Includes breakfast and lunch.

St John the Baptist parishioners can attend at no cost if you register by Sept 8, 2023.

Please RSVP by Friday, September 8 at www.sjbnewburgh.org

Good Shepherd Ultreya!

Join us September 5th in the Narthex for an Ultreya loaded with fellowship, fun, words of wisdom from speaker Rodney Baehl, info and much more. Mass and Adoration are right before that, so you can knock it all out in one night! Wooo!

Dave Concepcion should be in the Hall of Fame. Best shortstop in baseball for a decade.
