March 7th Meeting Will Be HUGE

All right, so mark your calendars, get ready to attend, the largest attended meeting that we've ever had in our history. There is soooo much going on and we are right in our wheel house of incredible activity at this time. Get to this meeting, to get caught up! The record of 53 Knights at a meeting can very easily be broken. NOW, to further entice attendance, we have a special treat for our meal at 6pm. Brother Knight, Joe Schalasky will be serving the meal, and he will have Bison Burgers and other delicacies for us. His son, Hunter, gets the credit for bringing this beast down for us. Now don't be scared, this is delicious and you need to try different things in life. Plus, we'll have other options if you're squeamish. As we always do, the "gathering" starts around 5pm. Then at 5:30 we'll have a new member meeting and dinner is served at 6:00 !!!! The Rosary for souls and loved ones starts at 6:45 or so & the MEETING starts at around 7PM. So mark your calendars, beg your wife to let you attend, take off work early, block off schedule or fulfill your New Year's resolution by attending more Knights stuff, and show up for our fun meeting! We'd love to see you and you can sit right next to me! Well, now I probably lost yah 😊 See yah then !!!!!!!!!!!!!

"Labor the more, that by good works, you may make calling and election sure!"

St. Patrick's Party News

March 16th is coming fast and the party is loading up to be the biggest one ever. Kevin Hamilton has things all lined up & we just need a good head count to have an idea of how much food to order. It is important to get people to commit and get their name down rather than, "well, I'll just show up and buy a ticket at the gate!" We don't wanna hafta buy pizzas at the end of the meal. So, try to get the sale made up front. This is the biggest & best party of the year and it's gonna get bigger. Tickets are available after Masses or at meeting, or talk to Kevin or Sam. It is ON !! Hope to see you all there !!!!

Attention: Tomorrow's class on "Prophecy" has been cancelled due to unforeseen circumstances.

Christianity has died many times and risen again, for it has a God who knows the way out of the grave.

Half Pot Sales PUSH !!!

All right gentlemen, we need to move this product and get these sales up !!!! We've been slowly inching up and we are around a $4K payout right now as I write. We've got 2 weeks of the most intense selling possible coming up. So ALWAYS BE CLOSING (ABC), make the sale, start the conversation, open their purse, tell them "they can't afford not to buy". Like from the movie "Field of Dreams", actor James Earl Jones said, "People will come. It's only $100 for 20 chances we'll say, they'll pass over the money without thinking about it. For it is money they have and peace they lack. People will most definitely come." If you don't have tickets, help those of us that do. This is a major fundraiser for us to do great things with around our town and parish. Thanks to Steve Henderson and his band of salesmen that are on it!

Outside of the bright lights of the stadium, with the fans and the notoriety that come with being an NFL player, the greatest impact that I will make with my time on this earth is remaining dedicated to my primary vocation - helping my family get to heaven.

Warning!!! BIG BINGO- 4/7

If ever there has been a perfect storm of a perfect scenario for a HUGE money-making event in the HISTORY of Good Shepherd for a one evening event, this my friends is IT !!!!!!! As the bingo rotation changes, this April 7th Sunday, opens for the Knights of Columbus ! So here are the ingredients for this "Perfect Storm".....

1. No Bingo the week before because of Easter
2. Beginning of the month means- S. S. checks
3. Tax time means extra money for some
4. Eclipse fans will be flooding to area for the scheduled event the next day and will need to fill their time, (especially if it's forecasted to be cloudy or overcast on Monday 4/8).
5. The Knights run the finest Bingo in the Tri-State area and have lots of fun doing it.

So, mark your calendars already and block the afternoon and evening off as we prepare for a record attendance surpassing our record of a 367 person bingo years ago. This will be an all hands on deck event of monumental potential.

The Good Thief and Christ the King

Is it true the thief on the cross was saved by faith alone apart from any good works? I don't think so. Look again. Look more closely – and what do you find? One of the criminals who were hanged railed at him saying: "Are you not the Christ the Savior? Save yourself and us." But the other rebuked him saying, "Don't you fear God since you are under the same sentence of condemnation and we indeed justly for we are receiving the due reward of our deeds but this man has done nothing wrong." He said: "Jesus remember me when you come into your kingdom."

What did this thief just do? First of all he rebuked a sinner. Have you done that recently? He rebukes somebody who was railing against Jesus. Have you done that recently? Second of all, he accepted responsibility for his own sin. He said we are being punished justly. Third, in front of all these people, in the midst of horrible agony, he not only rebukes this sinner, and confesses the justice of his own suffering, he turns to Jesus and in front of all these accusers, his enemies, he says what? "Jesus remember me when you come into your kingdom." He confessed Jesus Christ as a king. When everybody else who knew he was a king had abandoned him. Rebuking a sinner, accepting responsibility for his own sin, publicly declaring Jesus Christ to be King, even in the midst of his suffering, and confessing his faith that for you Jesus this cross is not the end of the story. It can't be, because of who you are. This cross is only a transition. A door into glory, royal glory! And so he says: "Remember me when you come into the kingdom. Remember me when you come into your kingdom."

I love this thief because he had real faith, but a faith that began immediately to produce real works. But those works that the thief produced were really the works of God in him. And that's what they are for us... They are what the cross made possible... And the thief, he found the front door in the glory, and so no one can be without hope. For when we look at Jesus, and we hear his word of forgiveness, and we realize this is not generic forgiveness, this is not some pardon thrown out for anybody, it is given to somebody who in himself was not worthy, and all he had to do to get it was to acknowledge his own unworthiness, and stand up for the truth that set him free, and confess that Jesus Christ is the King. And he was with Jesus Christ in paradise that day.

"Dynamic Deacon" Rocks the House

On 1/31, Deacon Harold Burke-Sivers visited Resurrection parish to give an incredible talk! He is one of the best Catholic speakers in the world, and didn't disappoint. He spoke of God having a Covenant, not a contract, with us, & that he gave us all but gave us the choice to freely choose to love Him. The apple tree was a physical reminder of His authority. The devil was jealous of Eve and came after her and is still after gals today. But, shame on Adam, for standing there and letting the devil lie to her!! Adam needed a partner, so God took rib & made equal partner to "be a helper against evil". That is why our Mother, Mary, is so important. Other great points Harold made were.....

*Go to Confession, Christ spoke more of Hell in the Bible than Heaven.

*There are 2 results from your life. Will you be in "Smoking or Non-Smoking" ?

*In Genesis, God Breathed life into them, then Jesus breathed on them giving apostles the Holy Spirit and ability to give new life – Reconciliation

*Jewish faith- when they celebrate Passover and say "remember" (that means memories are alive). Like present-tense. So, when Jesus says "Do this in Remembrance of Me", that's HEAVY! The Mass is like being at Calvary. The bread and water are separated, (death) then reunited at Consecration. He wants us to be with Him in our own bodies and our hearts through the Eucharist which Christ set up.

Free Throw Contest

On 2/7, Mr. Basketball, our brother Sammy Winn, had our Knights annual "Free Throw Contest". 5 or 6 of us showed up to help and 25 or so kids came to shoot. Some kids advanced and Sammy will have more details at the meeting. Thanks again for doing this and if anyone is interested in this fun job that involves youth/basketball & an easy volunteer job, please talk with Sammy. Way to Go!
