GUIDE TO HOLINESS

Saints... are excellent hosts.

Sharing Time & Talent: I joined the Knights for two reasons. First, my father is a Knight, and I remember helping him with Operation L.A.M.B. when I was 5 years old. I wanted to be like him, and I saw the good that being a Knight did for him. Second, we were raised to help the Church with our time, talent and treasure, and we didn't have much treasure growing up, so I learned to donate time and talent however I can. I didn't seek to become a leader, but the need was there.

Next Meeting - Aug 1st !

Holy Cow, that's like, THIS Thursday, can you believe it! So, like always, you're more than welcome to join us around 5, when the officers meet, then we may have a new guy meeting at 5:30 and then meal at 6. We will then have a Rosary around 6:45 to pray for souls and our loved ones and anybody else out there that needs our prayers. Then at 7:00 we shall partake in the riveting and incredible Knights meeting for August!! We got lots of stuff going on and it's good for us to catch up on all this! We could have a big turnout as the school season is slowly upon us and dads wanna know what's going on! Hope to see you all in the Parish Hall !!!!!!!!!!!!!

GS Knights knock out 2 meals for MC Training!!

Once again, we have provided 2 meals for this noble cause and helped Fr. Tyler and the crew for the MC training class. We had 6 Knights help for lunch and 2 Knights there for the dinner. John Smith was the MVP has he picked up the stuff and also cleaned the grill and was there from start to finish. He also took the picture that didn't include himself. With all the Knights we have on our roster, we really could have had more help and more volunteerism but that's the way things are going nowadays. It was great to see all those 25+ dudes out there learning more about the Mass. We just pray that maybe, just maybe, they might hopefully like it on the altar!

"My advice to a young Knight is this: Volunteer. Get involved. Don't sit back and wait for somebody else. And be honest, sincere and compassionate. It's just a matter of showing a little love in this world."
